

You have reached the Talent Partners Unclaimed Property Homepage

If you received an Unclaimed Property notification from the State of California please click on the following link for instructions on claiming your property.

If you received a letter from Talent Partners notifying you of an un-cashed check, please complete all the fields listed on the back side of your form and return to Talent Partners. Please note:

- This will be Talent Partners last attempt to reunite you with your funds before having to turn them over to your respective state.
- If your address has changed, please make any changes on this form to update your information in our system.
- Forms postmarked but received after the deadline will not be accepted.
- If you do not return your form to Talent Partners by the deadline, you will have to claim your funds from your state. You can do this by going to www.unclaimed.org and searching your respective state.

Please click on the following link for each states respective deadline.
